

SNOW, SLUSH BRING FIRST WINTRY SCENE

Gettysburg and Adams county got the first real taste of winter for this season on Sunday when a drizzle that began in the early afternoon turned to sleet and then snow by dusk while the mercury hovered about the freezing point.

Here most of the snow melted as it fell, turning to a half-inch of slush but in the mountains of western and northern Adams county several inches of snow covered the ground, pleasing first-day deer hunters but causing hazardous driving for motorists.

The first snow plows were put to work on mountain highways Sunday evening and others were working today while cinder crews were kept busy.

Traffic Heavy

The snow and rain had mounted to more than a full inch of precipitation here by noon today.

The Weather Bureau said at Harrisburg the snowfall extended generally across the state to a line southeast of the mountains near Chambersburg where it changed to rain but there were some reports of snow in eastern areas, including the Pocono mountains.

The snow storm came as highways leading to the state's deer hunting districts were crowded with thousands of automobiles taking hunters into the mountains for opening of the season today.

The Weather Bureau reported the heaviest snow fall, eight and a half inches, was recorded at the Loop fire tower in Huntingdon county.

REPUBLICANS TO FILE REPORT ON EXPENSES

The Adams County Republican committee had receipts of $5,992 for the recently completed political campaign and spent $5,668.21, according to the committee's expense account which will be filed Tuesday with the county election board.

Among the largest donations were $1,100 from Congressman Chester Gross, unsuccessful candidate to succeed himself as a member of congress; $3,600 from the state Republican finance committee and $600 from Donald P. McPherson, local attorney who was elected to the state senate.

No contribution is listed from Assemblyman Francis Worley, who was re-elected to the Legislature. Chairman John H. Basehore said Mr. Worley offered the committee $25 in payment of the $600 assessment placed upon him but the offer was rejected.

350 Received Sums

Approximately 70 contributors are listed in addition to the top three, with those individuals giving amounts ranging from $1 upward.

Approximately 350 persons were given sums ranging from $5 to $12.50 for their work in connection with the campaign as checkers, haulers, and the like. Approximately $1,000 was spent in advertising during the period. The expense account will be filed by Clarence C. Smith, treasurer of the county Republican committee.

Two other expense accounts were filed with the election board over the week-end. Leon Silar, treasurer of the York Central Labor Union's League for Political Education in York, filed an account showing receipts of $790.17 and expenditures of $787.55. The largest single donation was $300 from the State Federation of Labor League for Political Education. Sixteen others gave amounts ranging from $5 to $97. Forty-eight persons received sums ranging around $9.50 for services as watchers, haulers and the like, and $131.40 was spent for advertising.

Stenger Diehl, treasurer of the Franklin county Republican committee, filed an account showing receipts of $14,928.48, of which $13,000 was donated by the Republican Finance committee of Pennsylvania. Adams County Arms Specialist Has Gun That 'Shoots Around Corner;' Is Noted Author

Philip B. Sharpe, Adams county gun specialist, was featured in an article in the Sunday magazine section of The Baltimore Sun.

The cover of the magazine is a photograph of Sharpe firing a German gun which "shoots around a corner." Three pages of pictures and text inside the roto section are devoted to Sharpe's activities.

Entitled "Sharpe, The Sharpshooter," the story relates that "most of his neighbors in the country about Emmitsburg raise cattle, grain or vegetables, but Phil Sharpe has a rifle farm." Sharpe's farm is located midway between Emmitsburg and Fairfield.

Burke Davis, author of the Sun story, states that "Mr. Sharpe, author of two best-selling 'bibles' of the rifle world is an erstwhile army captain and chief of the small-arms unit of Enemy Equipment Intelligence. Today, still an adviser on small arms of many nations, he is also father confessor to the thousands of American gun bugs who are constantly developing new weapons and ammunition. Even so, by far the most of his work is done on research projects strictly by his own and the results appear in his writings."

Farm Carefully Guarded

Davis continues: "His 20-acre farm is a quiet place above Emmitsburg, carefully watched by state police when he is away, seldom visited by neighbors and booby-trapped for prowlers. On his firing range, where new ammunition is tested daily, there is one of the world's finest chronographs, to measure the speed of high-velocity bullets.

"The chronograph screens, operated by photo-electric cells measure bullet velocities up to 4,000 feet a second with incredible accuracy. This expensive device, Mr. Sharpe says, is about 15 times as accurate as pre-war chronographs and is the only such privately owned one in the country."

Sharpe is author of "A Complete Guide to Hand Loading" and "The Rifle in America," each of which has sold over 20,000 copies. The history of the rifle in America, brought up to date in 1947, and selling for $15 a copy was purchased by over 6,000 persons last year.

"Most of Sharpe's customers are gun bugs producing 'wildcats'—rifle loads which have not yet been accepted by manufacturers and produced commercially," the Davis article points out. "A number of standard cartridges were once wildcats, notably the 257 Roberts, the 220 Swift and the 220 Hornet. There are now well over 400 kinds of wildcats and Sharpe sees most of them sooner or later.

"Because of the nature of the work being conducted, the laboratory and

PREPARE PLANS FOR FIRE HALL

Plans for the proposed municipal building and fire hall, under consideration for sometime in McSherrystown, have been prepared by Norman Gerald Coulson, Hanover architect.

The proposed structure would be of brick and concrete. The first floor would contain a large apparatus room, a kitchen and equipment rooms. In the basement would be a large meeting and game room, a mechanics' room and public toilets.

The borough has purchased a lot at the southwest corner of Main and Third streets from Harry Wagaman as a possible site for the building. The lot is about a half block from the present engine house.

Building committees were named about a year ago by the borough council and the McSherrystown Fire company and have been working together. They visited engine houses in nearby communities before having the architect prepare preliminary plans.

The proceeds from benefits conducted by the fire company have been placed in a building fund to help finance construction of the new engine house and municipal hall.

Members of the building committee from the borough council and fire company include Eugene Murren, chairman; John R. Rudisill, secretary; Bernard Noel, Lawrence McMaster, Donald Price, George Ackerman, Earl Noel, Joseph Adams and Richard Cratin.

Battle For Central China Shifts To Nanking's Gates

By HAROLD K. MILKS
Nanking, Nov. 29 (AP)—The critical battle for central China appeared today to be shifting from Suchow to the very approaches of this Chinese capital.

The estimated 250,000 nationalist troops at Suchow, defense bastion for Nanking, have been ordered to withdraw southward to engage the main Chinese Communist forces.

The outcome of the entire battle for Nanking may depend on the ability of the Suchow garrison to make the withdrawal. The Reds are concentrating in the areas of Suhsien and Pengpu, rail cities on Nanking's approaches.

There has been no indication that the withdrawal order is being carried out—as yet—although it was made several days ago. Suchow still is getting supplies by planes, which are taking out wounded.

Nanking observers suggested that Nationalist commanders at Suchow are reluctant to leave the tons of munitions and supplies that have been stockpiled there in the past several months.

Should Suchow commanders ignore the orders from the capital—and continue to leave idle the largest body of troops left to Chiang Kai-shek—the Reds will be free to polish off other, smaller units one by one, and attack Suchow whenever ready.

The battle for Suchow has raged three weeks. Its abandonment would indicate that the government regards as more critical the developing struggle in the 211 miles between here and Suchow. Earlier reports from the fronts indicated that the Communists have left secondary troops to engage Nationalists within the Suchow perimeter. The main Red strength of nearly 500,000 troops was reported heading south toward Pengpu, 100 miles northwest of Nanking.

KILLS BOBCAT IN FARM YARD

Wildlife is moving in on Adams

countians. During the past several weeks at least two deer collided with cars, causing much damage to the cars and apparently little to the animals.

Now bobcats are beginning to "terrorize" the southwestern part of the county.

About 12:15 o'clock this morning, William McCleaff, Fairfield R. 1, shot a 15-pound bobcat in his back yard—after the cat had killed a chicken and attempted to kill a turkey. The noise from the turkey alarmed McCleaff, sent him into the back yard of his home to find the animal glaring at him from a tree. A shot brought down the animal. McCleaff said that the animal apparently had been the cause of the disappearance of other chickens from the farm.

BULLETINS

(By The Associated Press)

There were new signs today that the 89-day west coast shipping jam may be broken soon. Striking CIO longshoremen in four major Pacific ports have approved a settlement plan calling for a 15-cent hourly wage increase and other benefits. IUL locals in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Seattle and Portland have accepted terms. There was little doubt that smaller locals would follow suit.

Paris, Nov. 29 (AP)—Argentine Foreign Minister Juan A. Bramuglia said today he had sent to the Big Four powers his newest formula for settling the Berlin blockade crisis.

Washington, Nov. 29 (AP)—Senator Connally (D-Tex.) today voiced a personal belief that "the Russian blockade of Berlin will be lifted soon." Connally, who will again be chairman of the foreign relations committee when Democrats organize the Senate, said, however, he was not speaking "with authority."

Paris, Nov. 29 (AP)—Israel applied formally today for membership in the United Nations. Britain, which has been lukewarm to the new state carved from Palestine, "will in no circumstances make use of its privileged vote to bar the admission to the United Nations of any state which secures an unqualified majority of seven votes in the Security Council." Sir Alexander Cadogan told the U.N. second political committee. Britain is expected to abstain.

Washington, Nov. 29 (AP)—Madame Chiang Kai-shek's arrival here this week is expected to touch off a fresh drive to get the United States to underwrite China's war against its communist foes. Authoritative informants said today that as the Chinese President's wife she will be shown "every courtesy," but they made clear privately they have little sympathy with Madame Chiang's unofficial mission.

SPEAKER RANKS 15TH IN STATE GRID SCORING

Philadelphia, Nov. 29 (P)—Deacon Dan Towler, Washington and Jefferson's one-man football team, was a one-man show in Pennsylvania's gridiron scoring derby, the final Associated Press tabulation of the 1942 season showed today.

Towler amassed a grand total of 33 points, highest ever recorded by a Pennsylvania collegian. He beat Muhlenberg's Marty Binder, his closest competitor, by 31 points.

Binder, who played in 10 games compared with eight for the W. & J. speedster, piled up 102 points to rank 24 points higher than third place Dick Gabriel of Lehigh, scorer of 78 points.

Towler, the siege gun from Donora, crossed enemy goal lines 20 times to supplant Joe Carozzo of West Chester Teachers as the leading scorer in Pennsylvania. Towler wound up second last season as Carozzo scored 78 points. The West Chester back tallied only 12 points this season.

Just Misses Record
In addition, Deacon Dan booted 13 extra points. His total, good for second place in the nation, fell one short of the previously recognized national collegiate record held by Bill Dudley of Virginia.

Binder recorded 17 touchdowns and Gabriel 13. Neither figured in any other type of scoring plays.

Three other Pennsylvania gridironers—all fullbacks—scored 70 or more points. Ralph Pasquariello, Villanova, made 73 points in 10 games, Gordon Fleming, Lafayette, 72 in nine and Ted Test, Haverford, 70 in seven.

The extra point king for the season was Ralph Durstein of Lafayette, who converted 28 times. A touchdown and field goal boosted Durstein's point production to 37, good for a tie for 20th position in the state. Carl Sturges of Penn State was second in conversions with 25.

Report On Study Of Port Area

Camden, N. J., Nov. 29 (P)—The Delaware River Joint Commission studied today an engineering firm's recommendation for a $91,000,000 modernization and improvement plan for the combined Philadelphia-Camden port area.

The project was among many included in a report of the Knappen-Tippett-Abbott Engineering Co., of New York, on a Delaware river port development plan.

The report was ordered by the commission last April and submitted in its completed form over the week-end. It was based on a preliminary survey prepared last February and includes plans for a Philadelphia-Gloucester, N. J., bridge to cost $43,000,000.

In making public the report yesterday, Secretary Joseph K. Costello of the commission said all recommendations contained in it were made solely by the New York firm.

Sport Shorts

San Francisco, Calif., Nov. 29 (P)—John Simon, Penn State guard from Brownsville, Pa., has accepted an invitation to play in the Shriners' annual east-west charity football game at San Francisco, Jan. 1.

Simon, at Washington State today for his final collegiate game, was named to the second all-Pennsylvania team.

Philadelphia, Nov. 29 (P)—The 1948-49 Pennsylvania college basketball season is officially underway.

The first game of the new season was played here Saturday night when St. Joseph's college took a 90-64 decision from St. Francis college of Loretto, Pa. It was St. Joe's 24th straight win on their home court.

HAMILTON MAY MOVE TO PITT

Pittsburgh, Nov. 29 (P)—The University of Pittsburgh took steps today to boost its football machine back into big time ranks by moving to name a new athletic director.

The selection will be made (5 p. m., EST) by the Pitt Athletic committee and the undergraduate deans with the board of trustees confirming the choice.

Capt. Tom Hamilton, presently athletic director at the Naval academy and twice Navy football coach, was considered the man with the best chance to get the Pitt job, provided he can obtain his release from the Navy.

The position has been vacant since the resignation of Jimmy Hagan last summer. Some observers said the fact that the undergraduate deans will aid in the selection pointed to the possibility the man chosen will be given a dual title—athletic director and director of physical education—with a larger salary than that paid Hagan.

Hamilton has declined comment on his availability other than to say he was "pleased to be considered."

Chancellor Rufus H. Fitzgerald, in announcing today's selection meeting, said Hamilton and "others" would be considered. The "others" were said to include Jack (Spike) Harding of Miami, Fla., university; Wes Fesler of Ohio State, and Lloyd Jordan of Amherst.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Nov. 29 (P)—A short time ago, Norm Daniels, coach of the unbeaten Wesleyan U. football team, explained his school couldn't accept a bowl bid because that would mean cancelling the winter sports program. In a small college the athletes have to double up. As for the bigtimes, before the football players have a chance to knock the mud off their cleats, here comes the basketball season in full swing.

This week, while the Army-Navy game still is a bit more than just a memory, the Garden court season starts with NYU-Baylor and St. John's-Tennessee Thursday.

Texas and Rice play a two-night double-header stand at Louisiana State and Tulane Friday and Saturday and the same thing will be going on all over the country. P. S.: The "winter" racing season opens at Tropical park Wednesday. When is a fan—or a sports writer supposed to get some rest?

"A BENNIE FOR YOUR THOUGHTS"

When Bennie Oosterbaan stepped into Fritz Crisler's shoes as Michigan football coach, he might have been forgiven if he had trembled to think of the magnitude of the job he was taking over. But when an interviewer asked if he was "scared," Bennie replied with this tale of his first season of college ball: Michigan was playing Illinois, sparked by Red Grange, who had run wild against the Wolverines the year before. Feeling the need of some "stabilization" during the pre-game warmups, Oosterbaan drifted over to where another famous Bennie—Friedman—was practicing place kicks. "I'm scared," confided Oosterbaan. "So am I," Friedman replied as he calmly booted one between the uprights. "But we're not beaten yet." It's a matter of record that Michigan wasn't beaten that day, and in telling the tale the Michigan coach adds: "That was the first and last time I've ever really been scared."

QUOTE, UNQUOTE

Bob Lemon, Cleveland pitcher: "When you're on the mound for Cleveland and find yourself in a tight spot all you have to do is look around and see Lou Boudreau and Joe Gordon. You know if you can keep the ball low, there's a good chance they will come up with a double play."

BROWNS, EAGLES CLINCH DIVISION HONORS IN LOOPS

By JOHN CHANDLER

New York, Nov. 29 (P)—Half of the professional football scramble was unscrambled today, with the Cleveland Browns and Philadelphia Eagles clinching divisional honors in their respective leagues.

The pulverizing Browns came from behind yesterday to whip the San Francisco 49ers, 31-28, and nab honors for the third straight year in the All-America conference western division.

Philadelphia, meanwhile, stowed away the National league's eastern division title for the second season in a row by blanking the Pittsburgh Steelers, 17-0.

To Decide Other Titles

Two clubs in the AAC eastern race and two in the National league's western division have a chance, and one scrap may be settled next Sunday at Baltimore.

The Buffalo Bills, leading the AAC eastern division by one game, can win the dubious honor of meeting Cleveland in the AAC championship playoff by beating the Baltimore Colts.

Barring an unforeseeable upset, the National league's western titlist won't be decided until the two Chicago powerhouses—the Cardinals and Bears—collide. The teams, each with nine wins and one defeat, have a date December 12.

Yankees Out

Buffalo knocked the New York Yankees out of contention yesterday, 35-14, while Baltimore retained a mathematical chance by rallying to sock the Brooklyn Dodgers, 38-20. Chicago and Los Angeles in the AAC were idle.

In the National league, the Eagles got an assist from the Bears, who swamped the Washington Redskins, 48-13, and left them no chance of catching up in the eastern flag chase. Two other National contests saw the New York Giants down the Boston Yanks, 28-14, and the Los Angeles Rams sink Green Bay, 24-10. The Cardinals and Detroit Lions had an off day.

For the Eagles, Tommy Thompson flipped one touchdown pass, and set up the second with a long heave. Cliff Patton polished this off with a 31-yard field goal to drop the Steelers a notch below the Giants in the eastern standings.

MOST OF BOWL TEAMS ALREADY PICKED FOR JAN. 1

By WILL GRIMSLEY

New York, Nov. 29 (P)—With scattered exceptions, the myriad bowls could start printing programs today and begin bragging about who is going to serve the best football game.

Six of the ten top teams in last week's next to the last Associated Press poll are squared off in three of the annual fixtures.

The Sugar Bowl at New Orleans might be excused for puffing out its chest a little farther than the others because it landed the No. 4 team, North Carolina, and the No. 6, Oklahoma, the Big Seven champion.

California vs. Northwestern

The papa of the January extravaganza — the Rose at Pasadena — counters with one of the two unblemished powers in bowl action, fifth-ranked California, and Northwestern, No. 7.

The Cotton Bowl at Dallas matches Southern Methodist university, No. 8 in the last AP poll, and Oregon, No. 10.

A seventh member of the select bracket — ninth-ranked Clemson, also unbeaten and untied — will meet Missouri in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla.

Miami's Orange Bowl reached down to pick Georgia from the No. 12 spot. Sponsors haven't named an opponent yet but are expected today to give the nod to Texas.

Army Record Spoiled

Michigan, the No. 1 team in the nation, can't compete under a Western Conference ruling forbidding return trips to Pasadena. Notre Dame, No. 2, and Army, No. 3, traditionally shun the extracurricular activity.

Army had its perfect season spoiled in the annual service game spectacle at Philadelphia Saturday by a battered Navy team that sledge-hammered its way to a 21-21 draw.

Notre Dame and Clemson scored triumphs to keep their slates clean. The opportunist Irish, converting fumbles into touchdowns, stormed over Washington, 46-0. Clemson tripped Auburn, 7-6, and now must play The Citadel.

Georgia Clinches Crown

Orange - Bowl - bound Georgia clinched the Southeastern Conference crown by humbling its state rival, Georgia Tech, 21-13. Tulane topped Louisiana State, 46-0, and Mississippi trimmed Mississippi State, 34-7, for runnerup honors. Vanderbilt, which grew in strength as the season progressed, finished a successful year by trouncing Tennessee, 28-6.

The Sugar Bowl rivals won their season finales to carry almost similar records into the New Orleans clash. North Carolina defeated Virginia, 34-12, to wind up with nine victories and a tie. Oklahoma squeezed past Oklahoma A. and M., 19-15, to finish with nine triumphs and a single defeat.

The Oklahoma Aggies were named to play William and Mary in the Delta Bowl at Memphis, W. and M., won over Arkansas, 7-0, in an inter-sectional joust, Penn State barely edged out Washington State, 7-0.

Other results included: Alabama, 34, Florida, 28; Boston College, 21, Holy Cross, 20; Fordham, 26, New York U., 0; Texas Tech, 28, Hardin Simmons, 20; Villanova, 21, N. C. State, 7; Detroit, 26, Tulsa, 23; Arizona, 24, Marquette, 14.

Interment was in the Union cemetery, Silver Run, Md. Serving as pallbearers were P. L. Mangold, Lee Anthony, Edward Seitz, Milton Bassford, David Carbaugh and Raymond Carbaugh.

Funeral services were conducted in the J. W. Little and son funeral home, Littlestown, this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, for Jacob Henry Myers, 86, formerly of Pleasant Valley, Carroll county, who died Friday at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Haines, Littlestown, R. 1, with whom he was residing. His pastor, the Rev. Charles A. Price, pastor of St. Mary's Reformed church, Silver Run officiated, with interment in the Union cemetery, Silver Run. Pallbearers were Herbert Petry, Arthur Frook, William Yingling, George Dutterer, Elwood Nusbaum and William Crouse.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Fire: On Friday evening between 9 and 10 o'clock, the large stable of Mr. Thomas Warren, in North street, in this borough, was discovered to be on fire. Although the engines were promptly on the spot, the fire had progressed so far that it was found impossible to save it. It was entirely destroyed, except a part of the brick wall, and a corn-crib attached. There were about 3 tons of hay in the stable, and a horse, who was very badly burned before he was extricated; two buggies, one sleigh, five sets of harness, etc., all of which were destroyed. Fortunately, everything was damp from the rain which had fallen during the day, and the wind was blowing from the south. Had the reverse been the case, a great portion of the town would have been destroyed. It is not precisely known how the fire originated.

Those men who perched themselves carefully high and dry upon some logs in an adjoining lot, viewing calmly the exertions of their fellow citizens, who were endeavoring to save their neighbor's property, are certainly entitled to commendation for the great care they took of themselves, and were entirely relieved from the trouble of removing any dirt from their boots next morning, which might have been the case had they been among the working men.

Married: On Tuesday, by the Rev. E. V. Gerhart, Mr. James Gallagher, of Cumberland township, to Miss Eliza Ann Lawler, of Franklin township.

On the 18th inst., by the Rev. B. Schneck, Mr. Levi Baird, to Miss Sarah Maria, daughter of Mr. Abraham Plank—both of this county.

Blue Dicks: There will be a stated drill meeting of the Company, at the Engine House on Saturday, the 9th inst., at 4 1/2 o'clock P. M.
C. Horner, Sec'y.

The Celebration: In this place on Thursday passed off with considerable eclat. At an early hour crowds began to enter the town, and as the day advanced, it presented quite an animated appearance. At 1 P. M., a cold repast was served up and partaken of by the assembled multitude, after which addresses were delivered by D. McConaughy, Esq., and Hon. James Cooper. At 5 o'clock, a Torch-Light Procession was formed in Carlisle street, under Major Hamersly, Chief Marshal, which after traversing the various streets, was dismissed. Every effort was made to prevent anything that might tend to irritate our opponents, and nothing occurred to mar the general good feeling which existed.

The number of persons present has been variously estimated at from 1,000 to 2,000, but we are assured that not less than 1,500 assembled around the dinner table.

During the day at different times, salutes were fired from artillery, under the supervision of Mr. Alex. Frazer. The exercises of the evening were enlivened by the excellent music from the Berlin Band.—Star.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Thanksgiving Day was generally observed in Gettysburg. The Courts adjourned over to Friday, while the stores and places of business were closed. Union religious services were held in the College Church, where a large congregation assembled, which was addressed by Rev. Mr. Campbell, of the Presbyterian Church, and by Rev. Mr. Enders, of the Lutheran Church. Rev. Dr. Hay, pastor of the church, and Rev. P. R. McClean, of Waynesboro, also participated in the services.

The Young Men's Christian Association had an interesting meeting in St. James church in the afternoon.
At night the "Old Folks" Concert was repeated in Agricultural Hall.

The magnificent French steamer, Villa de Havre, the largest afloat except the Great Eastern, on its way from New York for Havre, collided on the 23d with a British ship, Lochearn, in mid-ocean and sunk in twelve minutes with 313 persons on board. But 87 were saved.

Today's Talk

TRIUMPHANT FAITH

For five centuries the inspiring story of Joan of Arc has instilled hope and faith into the world. From the hills of France came this unlearned peasant girl—the Maid of Orleans—selected by God to lead the armies of France to triumph over her enemies.

Given her assignment, through heavenly visions, never did Joan question the divine origin of her mission. Leaving father, mother, brothers—all, she dedicated all that she was to France. Gathering a few loyal believers about her, she soon impregnated a great army with her high spirit. Nothing daunted her. France must be free!

And so, bareheaded, smiling, confident, armored, with the sword of the Lord in her hand, "Boldly!," Joan cried to her men, "Strike! Strike! Strike BOLDLY!"
And now we have this thrilling story, told anew upon the screen, in Technicolor, starring Ingrid Bergman, and an exceptionally able staff of supporting actors. It is one of the most moving pictures I have ever seen. As it progresses it does something to you, and when it is all over, and Joan's martyrdom is stamped upon your consciousness, you experience an exultant note of personal spiritual triumph. Miss Bergman's superb acting, so sincerely perfumed, does it.

Joan of Arc, as a movie, is a technical triumph, beautifully and artistically photographed, and expertly directed. A great historic story is realistically portrayed. The little peasant girl, with the divine vision, her unflinching faith, and her magnetic leadership of the armies of France. The storming of the fortress. Victory! Joan wounded. Later betrayed, imprisoned, tried, and condemned to die at the stake. Never, however, did that triumphant faith leave her—the immortal Joan!

This is one of those pictures that is more than mere entertainment. There's something else there. It creeps into your mind and heart as the picture moves to its climax. Then you rise from your seat, and take "that something" away with you.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "That Extra."

GIVE THE CHECK TO DAD

The bill of fare is printed in the boldest sort of type.

The prices all are quoted down from caviar to tripe.

But a curious fact I've noticed when my loved ones dine with me
Is the price of what they order they insist they failed to see.

Now I trust them and believe them and to this I've grown resigned:
The most expensive dishes on the menu card they find.

Though the cost of them is printed just as plainly as can be,
They are always very sorry that the price they didn't see.

I love them all so dearly that their word I wouldn't doubt,
But I wonder, from the cheapest, how they pick the costliest out?

How so artfully they manage, when the check will come to me,
To choose the most expensive when the price they never see?

SUSPENSION OF RECRUITING FOR GUARD LIFTED

Harrisburg, Nov. 29 (AP)—The Pennsylvania National Guard today opened the way for pre-draft age youths to get military training without leaving home.

Brig. Gen. Frank A. Weber, state adjutant general, lifted a four-month suspension on state-wide recruiting and directed all units, both army and navy, to accept enlistments, starting December 1, from youths between 17 and 18 1/2 years and men over the 25-year maximum draft age.

Weber said the pre-draft age youth can "discharge their responsibilities" under the draft law by signing up for a three-year hitch with the National Guard. The Guard trains two hours, one night a week, and goes into 15 days' field training every summer.

Allow Full Strength
"I urge the mothers and fathers of Pennsylvania to give serious consideration to the opportunity being afforded their sons to serve their country without leaving home," Weber stated.

The Selective Service law authorizes Gov. James H. Duff to permit enlistments in the 17- to 18 1/2-year range when it is determined National Guard units cannot be maintained up to strength by enlistments above the draft's 25-age limit.

The National Guard Bureau has lifted the ceiling on total enlistments, allowed each of the 235 federally recognized units in the Pennsylvania National Guard to recruit to its full peacetime strength.

HUNT ANCESTOR OF DINOSAUR

Marienville, Pa., Nov. 29 (AP)—A group of scientists are trying to track down an animal they believe may pre-date the dinosaur by from 150 to 300 million years.

Dr. J. Leroy Kay, curator of vertebrate paleontology of the Carnegie institute at Pittsburgh, said he and the other scientists are stumped as to the animal's identity.

The only thing they are sure of at the present, he said yesterday, is that the animal left 20 pairs of matching three-toed footprints stretching across a mammoth piece of what is now sandstone.

"The geological formation indicates it must have been an amphibious animal," said Dr. Kay after leading a group of museum experts out to Elk county to view the tracks. "The reptiles such as the dinosaurs didn't come until much later—but I've never seen anything like them before."

Dr. Kay, who had done much dinosaur hunting, said the rock formation was of the Pennsylvania system "which means the tracks were made probably 300 million years before the dinosaur lived."

The scientists plan to peel off a layer of the sandstone formation, take it back to the museum with them and study it further in an attempt to establish the identity of the mysterious animal.

27 Killed When Burning Store Falls

Mexico City, Nov. 28 (AP)—Twenty-seven persons were believed to have been killed yesterday when a hardware store building, weakened by fire and explosions, toppled into a narrow downtown street.

Police who released the death toll said ten bodies were recovered from the debris. Digging continued through the night. The victims included 12 firemen who, with police, Red Cross workers and volunteers, were trapped when the flaming building collapsed.

Businessmen announced they would close stores and offices for two hours during the day. Newspapers began public subscriptions for families of the firemen with 5,000 peso ($750) donations.

The 3,000,000 peso ($435,000) fire was discovered yesterday about dawn. The two-story building was a roaring furnace when the firemen got there. Explosions of oil, paints, gasoline, and gunpowder added to the danger.

NOTES ON HOME STORAGE OF MEAT

Families without quick-freeze units and other refrigerated facilities for storing the home supply of meat must know and practice sound methods for protecting hams, shoulders, bacon and other "cured" meats from spoilage and insects. Of course, proper curing and smoking usually solve the spoilage problem, but certain widely prevalent insects endanger stored meats in all climates.

There are three main groups of insects attacking stored meat—(1) The larder beetle; (2) Ham or cheese skipper; and (3) Cheese mite. The latter is not a true insect but it is usually carried to stored meats by one of the other pests.

The smokehouse should be kept clean around the year. In this program there is no substitute for scrubbing with hot, soapy water. Walls, ceiling and floor should be sprayed at least twice a year with DDT at the rate of 1 pound of 50 per cent wettable powder to 2 1/2 gallons of water. Of course, all meat should be removed during the spraying operations and returned after the sprayed surfaces are dry. Flies of all kinds and most other flying and creeping insects which later alight on or walk over the spray residue are killed.

Particular attention should be directed toward keeping all accumulations of grease removed from the smokehouse and storage room floors, walls and equipment. Such materials not only attract insects, they serve as breeding sources. Likewise all scraps of meat, edible and inedible, should be placed and kept in tight containers during the butchering and storage periods.

Windows and doors, including all ventilation openings to smokehouses and meat storage rooms should be fitted with screens having at least 30 meshes to the inch. This is a "must" for every meat storage room.

Much depends on how carefully smoked meats are wrapped and otherwise encased. First, wrapping should be done immediately after smoking is completed. The primary step is to wrap each piece of meat in grease-resistant paper so no grease will soak through to coat the bag and thereby invite insects. Next, the paper-wrapped piece should be placed at once in a muslin or other insect-proof bag and the top folded and tied. Then the individual bag should be suspended by its tying string so it does not touch other hanging bags.

Checking bags for holes through which insects might enter is a wise precaution. And frequent inspection of stored meat continues safety measures.

Rat-proofing and mouse-proofing should be emphasized and the bags examined every few days for rodent damages. Insects quickly take advantage of holes gnawed by rats or mice.

LATE NOVEMBER GARDEN DUTIES

Newly planted trees should be staked securely to prevent them from being blown loose in the ground. Wrap the trunks with burlap or waterproofed paper to prevent drying out of the bark.

Mulching materials should be prepared without delay, to be put in place after the soil is frozen on inch or two deep.

Keep a close watch on tender bulbs which were lifted after the first frost. Keep them airy and dry and cool until the foliage has turned brown, when they may be cleaned for winter storage.

Set out bird-feeding stations in a warm, sheltered spot, but sufficiently in the open to eliminate the danger of attack from cats. An important point to remember is that once bird-feeding stations are established they should be continued regularly throughout the winter.

Continue planting tulips, daffodils and other spring flowering bulbs. November and December are the months to plant the lily bulbs now available.

Label newly planted roses and other plants with permanent markers.

Ventilate the cellar where vegetables are stored and keep the temperature reasonably low. Inspect all stored vegetables for possible decay.

On warm sunny days, ventilate the coldframe in which plants are being stored over the winter.

For continuous indoor bloom throughout the winter, start a bowl or two of paper-white narcissus at intervals of about fifteen days.

Clean and oil garden tools before storing them for the winter.

Order plants, bulbs and garden accessories for Christmas gifts that will please gardening friends.

By British law, under an act passed when George IV was king, a Roman Catholic cannot serve as regent of the kingdom.

HOUSING COSTS RISE LESS THAN OTHER COSTS

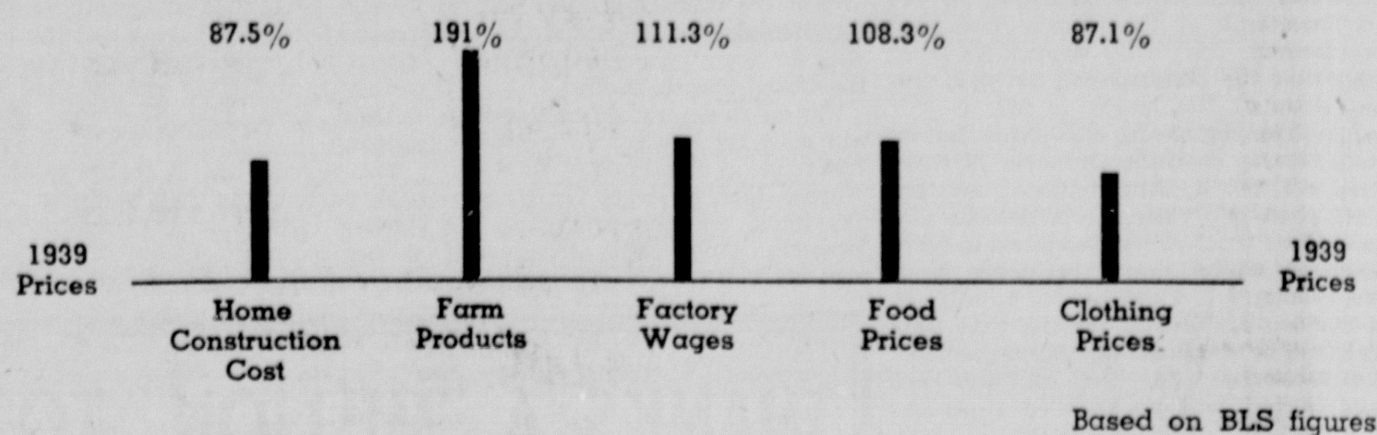

Chart above clearly shows that housing costs have risen less since 1939 than costs of most other essentials.

According to the chart below, the average wage-earner and farmer can buy the present day house with less hours of work or farm product.

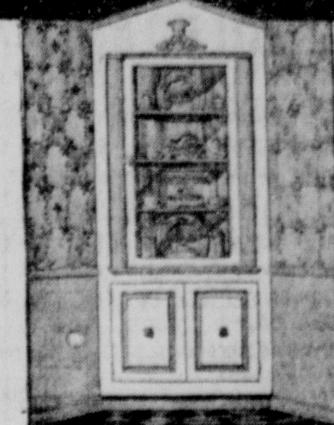

While the housing situation, as well as everything else is far from ideal, the fact is that housing costs have risen no higher than other costs, and are not out of relationship with wages or purchasing power.

SUPPOSE MR. BLANDINGS HAD NO MIDDLE MAN

So you've heard that the middle-man's profit makes your living costs too high. Then, let's eliminate the lumber and building material dealer. We'll just say that Gettysburg Building Supply Company has been liquidated.

We'll build one of the simple, lower cost homes, and buy all the materials direct from the manufacturers.

First, perhaps, we should write the 41,000 manufacturers of building materials for catalogues and prices. In postage alone, that would amount to $1,230. This is obviously impractical.

Seek Local Manufacturers

Perhaps instead we should pick out a few manufacturers—nearby—to see personally about materials for our house.

Without traveling about 1,000 miles it would probably be almost impossible to find all these items: Lumber, cabinet and mill work, paint, cement, brick, wallboard, roofing, insulation, building paper, glass, nails, staples, screws, bolts, hardware.

Travel Expense High

If all except four materials were available locally and these four were respectively 300, 200, 100 and 75 miles away — the travel, food and lodging costs would amount to about $300. Under this plan you have incurred a $300 cost before you can even order needed materials.

Let us say that you have finally placed your order. As you need only a relatively small supply of each material, you will receive Less-Than-Carload railroad freight shipments. This may increase your transportation costs $350, and your inability to use quantity discounts may add another $150 increase to your purchasing price. Now, your supplies are on hand, and you build.

The Usual Delays

Experiencing almost phenomenal beginner's luck, you complete your house after only the most minor and usual delays: (1) Hardware for one door is lost. (2) The mullions on one window are smashed while being trucked from railroad to home site. (3) The foreman on the job is quarantined while his three year old daughter has measles. (4) Delays occasioned by the above mishaps amount to 13 weeks. Five weeks of this was lost trying to re-hire labor laid-off awaiting late shipments. You find out it sometimes costs more in lost items and damaged work to lay the men off than it did to keep them on. See Your Local Dealer

Having finally worked through all the problems connected with building a house, and with your house completed, you breathe a sigh of relief.

BUT—wouldn't it be much easier to order all your building needs at Gettysburg Building Supply Company on South Franklin Street?

BEST MATERIALS PURCHASED HERE

Gettysburg Building Supply Company performs an indispensable service to dream house builders in Adams county by selecting materials best suited to local requirements. By concentrating on these items, this company assures builders of supplies which will construct homes of enduring beauty and livability.

YOUR DREAM HOUSE COSTS LESS TODAY

To stock the average of 1,200 different items in his yard, the lumber dealer can select materials from over 41,000 manufacturers. (If plumbing, heating, wiring and other items are included, the number of manufacturers runs closer to 50,000.) As there are only about 27,000 lumber and building material dealers, there are many thousands more manufacturers than distributors.

In 1939, Mr. Blandings or Mr. Adams county paid more in work, time and products for a $5,000 house than he pays in those same things today for a $10,000 house.

Here are statistics presented by Gettysburg Building Supply Company:

In 1939, a $5,000 house cost factory workers 223 pay weeks, carpenters 181 pay weeks, farmers (wheat) 8,772 bushels wheat, farmers (hogs) 72,400 lbs. hogs.

In 1947, a $10,000 house cost factory workers 27 pay weeks less, carpenters 31 pay weeks less, farmers (wheat) 3,526 bushels wheat less, farmers (hogs) 26,400 lbs. hogs less.

By drawing comparisons, any person in any trade or profession can easily see that it is more profitable to build today than it was nearly a decade ago. Why not come down to Gettysburg Building Supply Company and, without obligation, receive material estimates.

BLANDINGS SHOWS NEED FOR BUILDING MATERIAL DEALERS

"Mr. Blandings Builds His Dream House," showing at the Majestic theatre Monday and Tuesday, and starring Cary Grant and Myrna Loy, will give Gettysburg and Adams County residents an obvious picture of the need for Gettysburg Building Supply Company.

CARY GRANT is Mr. Blandings, the befuddled New Yorker who builds a home in the country in "Mr. Blandings Builds His Dream House."

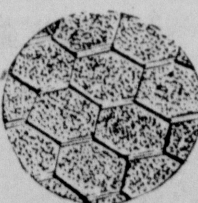

EACH MONTH we receive a new design . . . a bright, modern, new home which joins the scores of designs in our Weyerhaeuser 4-Square Home Building Service.

RECENT EVENTS REVEAL TREND IN TOLERANCE

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Nov. 29 (AP)—Here are some events of the past few weeks which show in the present college generation some growth of appreciation for a man as a man in spite of his color:

Levi Jackson, a negro, unanimously was elected captain of the Yale football team.

Frank S. Jones, a negro, was chosen student manager of the Harvard football team.

Thomas W. Gibbs, a negro, was elected a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity at Amherst college over the protest of the national fraternity. The Amherst chapter was suspended by the national fraternity before Gibbs was initiated.

Refuse Football Bid

Lafayette college refused to play in the Sun Bowl game at El Paso, Texas on New Year's day because college officials said state laws there discriminated against its negro half-back.

The New York Times and the Herald-Tribune thought the events important enough to treat them as outstanding news.

Some one from another country, seeing these events considered prime news, would realize racial tolerance in this country is far from widespread.

If it were, only Jackson's election would have been news, since the election of a Yale captain always is; the El Paso incident wouldn't have happened; and the other two events would not have been unusual enough to be news.

But all those events are only one of the five ways in which attacks are being made on the problem of racial and religious prejudice and discrimination, more and more every year.

Something Accomplished

1. By individual groups acting for themselves, such as the students at the schools mentioned. They've knocked a few bricks out of the wall of prejudice, if only in their own

Senator Warns Of Profit Curbs

Washington, Nov. 29 (AP)—Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) served notice on a "few giant corporations" today he aims to put double check-reins on their profits—higher taxes and federal price and ration curbs.

"I don't want to re-enact OPA," he told reporters, "but I do want to control the present regimentation of prices and rationing of products by concentrated private interests."

O'Mahoney did not single out any corporation by name but he said those dealing in basic commodities, such as steel, "are in a position to fix their own prices and distribution."

In this way, he said, most items needed by the average family are subject to a corporate rationing system.

"As long as shortages exist in the basic commodities," he said, "we should have government allocation."

backyard.

2. By written and spoken words: In newspapers, magazines, on the radio and in discussion groups. And this includes education at home and in schools.

3. By individual states. The states themselves can try—and many have—in their own way to solve the problem which makes some of their citizens second class citizens because of their race, color or religious beliefs.

4. By the U. S. Supreme court.

5. By the federal government—the President or Congress—issuing orders or passing laws which knock down discrimination.

The roots of prejudice in this country are so deep, that no one of the five attacks on it can solve the problem.

But all five, taken together, have a steady impact on, and against, discrimination and prejudice, and will some of them away.

Trolley Passenger Injured In Attack

Philadelphia, Nov. 29 (AP)—Police today sought a man who they said wounded a trolley passenger in an attempted attack on the car's operator.

Detective Samuel Crooks said the unidentified man shot Wilbur Mad-ation Evangelism among the members of the congregation. These services will be held nightly from November 29 to December 3 and December 6.

CHURCH WILL

To Conduct Canvass

Samuel Conover, chairman of the Kingdom Service committee of Redeemer's Reformed church has selected 17 teams of canvassers, who will contact all members of the congregation next Sunday afternoon, who do not turn in their 1949 pledges at either of the services next Sunday morning. Each team will pick up its list at the church at 1 p. m.

Mr. Conover announces the following teams: A. C. Garland and Paul Stoness; Wilbur A. Bankert and Richard Staley; Stewart Long and Lloyd Baker; Levere Breighner and George Stoness; Samuel Harnish and Evan Appler; W. H. Dern and Norman Hahn; Edward F. Hawk and Charles Riffle; Harry L. Cratin and Ray Snyder; Herbert Bankert and Stanley Weikert; Ralph Staley and Elmer Dutta; Melvin Miller and Irvin Keefer; Frank Creager and Theron M. Spangler; Samuel H. Higinbotham and Richard Hartlaub; George Dehoff and Samuel Conover; George Conover and Melvin Shandbrook; Frank Stoness and Lloyd E. Crouse; and Donald Arbogast and dray, 31, yesterday a half hour after an argument with the car's operator.

Maddray was taken to Mercy-Douglass hospital where doctors said his face was peppered with shotgun pellets. His condition was not considered serious.

The trolley operator, Harry Beck, 30, was quoted by Crooks as saying the unidentified man raised a disturbance and then told him as he left the car:

"I'll get you on the way back."

Predecessors of modern British restaurants were coffee houses and taverns, which had a daily "ordinary"—a dinner or supper served at a common table and generally for a fixed price.

The word "restaurant" was first applied in America to dining rooms of the better hotels and to a few high class a la carte dining places.

Robert Thomas.

The pastor, the Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, received into the membership of Redeemer's church on Sunday morning by letter of transfer, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reek and Mrs. William M. Ebaugh. Confirmation class will meet Tuesday at 7 p. m.; the consistory, Wednesday at 8 p. m. and on Thursday, junior choir at 3:45 p. m. and senior choir at 7:45 p. m.

Plan Bazaar

Saturday from 4 to 8 p. m., the Ladies' Aid Christmas bazaar and food sale will be held in the social hall. Hot chicken sandwiches will be on sale and cake and coffee will be served. The following committees will be in charge: Table: Mrs. H. M. Badders and Mrs. A. C. Basehoar; Food: Mrs. Charles Hofe, Mrs. John LeGore, Mrs. Carrie Stauffer and Mrs. Samuel W. Beck; and Serving: Mrs. Doris Reaver, Mrs. Frank E. Reynolds, Miss Helen Myers, Mrs. Granville Jacoby and Miss Evelyn Hornberger.

A largely attended Thank Offering service was held Sunday evening by the Missionary society of St. Luke's church, White Hall, of which the Rev. Dr. J. M. Myers is the Lutheran pastor, and the Rev. John C. Brumbach is the Reformed pastor. Guest speaker for the occasion was Puad Nucho, a student in the Gettysburg seminary. Mr. Nucho is a native Christian Arab.

His theme was, "One Flock-One Shepherd" and was based on the fifteenth chapter of St. John. Miss Betty Hartlaub, president of the society was in charge of the service and Mrs. Naomi Schwartz, was organist. Miss Hartlaub gave the call to worship and led in the responsive reading, "Miss Velma Plinking sang a solo, "Near to the Heart of God," after which Dr. Myers led in prayer, which was "The Litany of a Grateful Heart." Dr. Myers introduced the speaker.

Following the address, the ceremony of the Ingathering of the Thank Offerings was in charge of the Rev. Mr. Brumbach. Mrs. Charles Ginter, Mrs. Parr Breighner, Mrs. D. C. Shandbrook and Mrs. Ray Reichart served as the ushers, while the choir sang "Praise Ye the Father." The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Mr. Brumbach.

Church Wins Honor

The pastor, the Rev. John C. Brumbach, of Christ Reformed church, near town, announced that he had received certificates of recognition from the Kingdom Service committee of the Gettysburg Synod of the church certifying that the congregation had paid the benevolent apportionment in full for 1947 and 1948. These certificates were presented by the pastor, to George W. Berwager, congregational treasurer, at the morning service and they will be displayed in the vestibule of the church. This year marks the fifth consecutive year that the congregation has paid this item of the budget in full.

The pastor also announced that on Sunday morning December 12, there will be a congregational meeting when two elders, three deacons and three trustees will be elected to serve for three years, beginning with January 1. Those elected to office of elder or deacon for the first time will be ordained on Sunday morning, December 26, and all who are elected will be installed December 26.

It was also stated by the pastor that C. Daniel Good is one of the men whose term of office as deacon, expires with the end of the year. Mr. Good has been renominated by the consistory to serve for another term of three years, but because of failing health and inability to serve, he declined renomination. Mr. Good was ordained a deacon on December 15, 1906 and served continuously in that capacity since that date. On January 1, 1946, he retired as secretary of the consistory, after serving continuously for 35 years. He was also for many years a member of the Christ church choir.

The men's chorus of Christ church will meet for rehearsal, Tuesday at 7:30 p. m., at the home of Raymond Warner, Lumber street. On Wednesday night the Consistory and the Women's Guild will hold their monthly meetings in the church at 7:30 p. m. The trustees will also meet in joint session with the consistory.

The Rev. Glenn Stahl, pastor of the Lutheran church, Taneytown, was the guest speaker at the eighth union vesper service sponsored by the Littlestown ministerium, held Sunday evening in the Centenary Methodist church. The theme was, "Thanksgiving" and it was based on Exodus 15:13. He said, "Although Thanksgiving has passed, our thanks should not cease. Back of gratitude for all things is our gratitude for a faithful God who cares for His people."

This service was in charge of the host pastor, the Rev. Grantas E. Hooper, who also read Psalm 97 as the scripture lesson. The Rev. Kenneth D. James, who secured the January 16.

speaker, introduced him and offered the prayer. The Rev. Mr. Stahl pronounced the benediction. Mrs. Edward Harner, served as organist in the absence of the organist, Mrs. Verdie Strain.

The service next Sunday evening will be held in Christ Reformed church near town, when the Rev. Howard Bock, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, McSherrystown will be the guest speaker. This series of vesper services will close with the service in Redeemer's Reformed church on December 12. There will then be a recess over the Christmas season until the week of January 9, when the annual preaching mission will be conducted January 9 to 14. The second series of vesper services will start on

Here's what has happened to telephone costs

It is our policy to furnish the most and the best possible telephone service at the lowest possible cost.

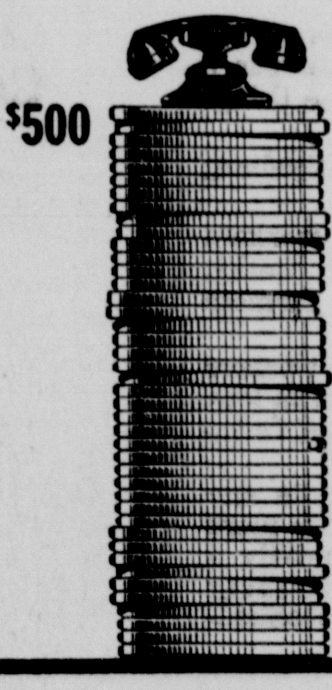

This policy has not changed. But circumstances have changed.

Today, it costs more to provide telephone service—and more to maintain it. Here's a chart comparing the average investment in plant and equipment per telephone in 1939 with the investment required for each telephone added today.

$500

WHEN rising costs forced us to ask for higher telephone rates in 1946, we asked—in the public's interest—for only the bare minimum required at that time.

Recent wage increases, however, when added to further increased costs of construction, materials and supplies, have brought telephone expenses to an all-time high.

The rate increases previously granted are less than we asked for and much less than needed to meet today's increased costs of operation.

That's why we have had to ask the Public Service Commission for another increase in telephone rates.

While we want to furnish service at the lowest possible cost, telephone rates must be sufficient to meet our day-by-day operating expenses. And there must be enough left over to pay a fair return to investors—the people in all walks of life whose money is used to build telephone facilities. Otherwise they won't continue to put their savings into the telephone business.

Without the investors' money, we cannot complete our current vital construction and improvement program—a program designed to meet the growing telephone needs of Maryland.

It is our job to provide the kind and amount of telephone service you want and need.

We are asking for only enough to do that job—and no more.
